

2nd Week of Advent

Loving God,

We celebrate this 2nd week of Advent, give us an example and inspiration from the great St. John the Baptist. John lived a very humble and simple life. John prepared the way for Jesus, and we can also prepare for Jesus by showing others great kindness, caring and mercy. But we will not worry about wearing camel's hair or eating locusts like St. John the Baptist!!

We can see there are emotional mountains of pain, anger, frustration, hurt, sadness, loneliness and bitterness that need to be made smooth. The only way to remove those type of emotional mountains in peoples' hearts and minds is by receiving your love, compassion, patience and mercy.

Confessing our sins; admitting to God our failings and weaknesses is the best way to prepare for Jesus to be "born again" (receive a new life with Jesus) in our hearts and souls; so that Jesus' love can continue to grow in us.

Thank you, Jesus for listening our prayers.

Amen.
