

JPC Update News about Third Sunday Mass

This is an update about Sunday Mass services at JPC. Due to the Government announcement of lockdown and Covid rules there will be no Ash Wednesday service on Wednesday this week. On Sunday 21st February People can not come to JPC for Mass. Mass will be live-streamed only through our JPC Facebook (/JohnPierceCentre) page or JPC website (www.jpc.org.au). This means you can watch it (video) on your computer or iPad at home at 11.00am.

Please do not come into JPC unless we tell you that you can come. We need to wait for Government advice and then make plans about the next few months at JPC. Later when people are permitted/asked to come in there will be strict rules about coming into JPC.

The staff will work hard to contact people who regularly come to Mass to let you know what is happening so please contact us email or text if you would like more information. We will be making these videos for Facebook and website to let you know what is happening each month. Thanks for your patience and understanding and we hope to see you again soon at JPC.

Please stay safe, look after yourselves and others. Please contact us if you need support or to chat.
