

Prayer about God's presence in my life.

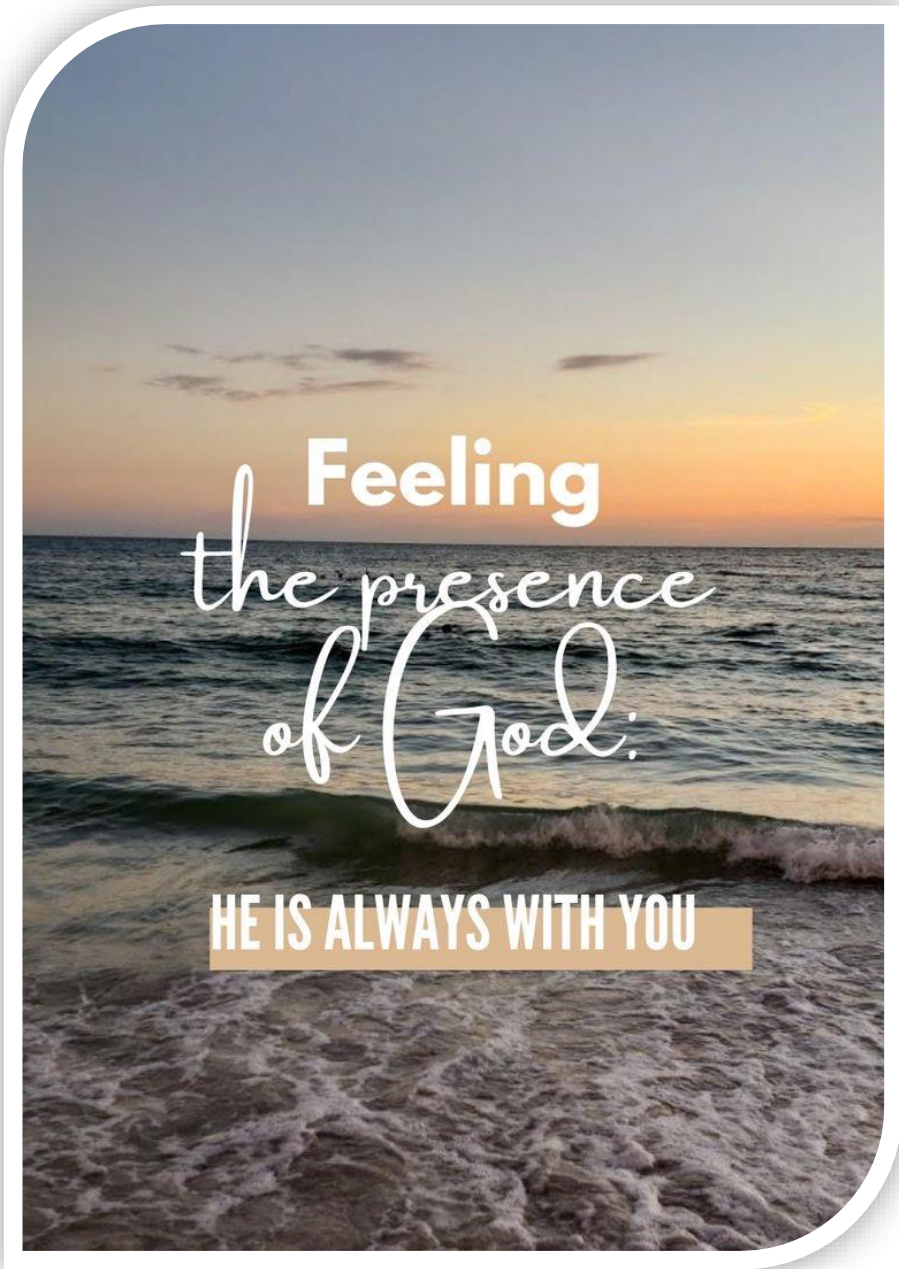

Hello, Good Day to everyone! Today's prayer is about God's presence in my life. You are welcome to join me to pray:

Loving God,

You are always with me, you guide me, hold me safe. Help me to know this every day, to trust you in good times and times when I am not coping. Sometimes it is difficult for me to pray. Sometimes I struggle to express my thoughts to you. Help me to accept that you know what is in my heart, and that you God know everything. I can sit with you, not say at all because you know me, you know my mind, you know my heart. I can sit with you, in your love, in your tender care. You know my worries when I cannot express them. You know my fears when I cannot feel them. You know my love that I cannot show to others.

Loving God, give me strength to show my love; give me courage to accept my fears; give me a way to express my worries - so I can be open to the needs of other people in my life. Help me to know your loving presence beside me - always.

Thank you, God. Amen.
